DEFENDANT’S MOTION TO RECONSIDER DETENTION ORDER AND REQUEST FOR PRETRIAL RELEASE UNDER THE CONDITION OF HOME CONFINEMENT

The Defendant, Patrick McKibbins, by his counsel, Bart E. Beals, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. Proc. 12(d) requests that this Court reconsiders the detention order issued on January 7, 2008 and grant him pretrial release under the condition of home confinement for the following reasons:

1. On January 7, 2008, the government moved for pre-trial detention of Mr. McKibbins. Mr. McKibbins did not contest the government’s motion.
2. Judge Geraldine Soat Brown granted the government’s motion and ordered Mr. McKibbins detained pending trial. The court noted that the order “is without prejudice to [Mr. McKibbins]’s right to move at a later time for pretrial release on conditions.” See Exhibit A
3. Mr. McKibbins would now like to exercise his right and request a detention hearing.
4. Mr. McKibbins is not a flight risk or danger to the community. He has a family that he can live with while he faces the charges in this case.

5. He requests that this Honorable Court consider placing him on home confinement.

WHEREFORE, Defendant seeks a hearing to present his arguments as to why the court's detention order should be reconsidered and he should be granted release under the condition of home confinement.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Bart E. Beals

Attorney for Patrick McKibbins
